

Day 6

When I got into the plane one of the hostesses invited two of us to go to the cockpit during the take off. The pilot was very nice to us.

We arrived at the airport in Bari at around 6pm and then we travelled by car to Gioia del Colle with the families.

After I settled in Manuel's house, I played a bit of computer. Dinner was pasta and went to sleep after dinner.

Day 7

I went to school and was very well received by them all. We visited the Liceo Classico, and then we met the mayor. Then we went to visit the Liceo Scientifico where I played with a ball and saw the auditorium, chemistry and informatics labs. In the afternoon we went to a distillery and later went to the Oil Mill "which is a factory that produces olive oil. In the evening we visited the farm of Manuel's grandparents, who had many cows and chickens. Dinner was pizza was good although a little salty, and when I finished the meal I went to the PC and then went to sleep.

Day 8

I woke up and had breakfast (bread / milk) and then his father took us school to watch a spectacular show prepared by students.

Then we went to "Mount Sannace", which is a site that had something prehistoric remains. In the afternoon I was at home and at around seven we went to a mini-casino to go bowling. When we finished, we went to a foccacia / pizzeria.

Day 9

I woke up at 9:30 just to watch a volleyball game. Manuel played in the team but unfortunately they lost 3-0. In the afternoon I met with everyone in Bari, walked in a village called Alberobello. It was where I bought most of my souvenirs.

In the evening we went to the house of a friend of his, then we went home and had dinner.

Day 10

I woke up, took breakfast and went to a factory called "Capurso" where mozzarella was produced. Then we went to visit the historic centre of Gioia.

In the afternoon I played football and also volleyball. I went to Manuel's house and packed, had dinner and went to the computer.

Day 11

I woke up I took breakfast and went to the hotel "Svevo" to meet the teachers and my Portuguese colleagues. We went to the airport and caught a plane to Rome and then another one to Lisbon. We were in the cockpit when we landed in Lisbon.

I liked being in Italy very much. I liked the people, specially my Italian family. They were all very nice to me. And I liked the food too.
